- 1.2 If there is any inconsistency between the various provisions of the Agreement, the following order of precedence will apply, where 1 has a higher precedence than 2 and so on: (1) Any agreed amendment/Amendment Notice (2) Business Application Form; (3) Service Specific Terms (4) General Business Terms and Conditions.

2 Services and Coverage

- 2.1 Vodafone shall use reasonable endeavours to provide Customer with the Services and to ensure the security of Customer's communications at all times. However, due to the nature of mobile technology, it is impossible to provide a fault-free service.
- 2.2 Vodafone may suspend the Services: (i) in order to carry out maintenance or testing of the Network; (ii) during any technical failure of the Network, (iii) when it is necessary to safeguard the security and integrity of the Network or to reduce the incidence of fraud; or (iv) where it identifies Artificially Inflated Traffic. Vodafone shall endeavour to keep all such suspensions to a minimum and shall give Customer notice of such suspensions where reasonably practicable.

3 Customer's use of Equipment and Services

- 3.1 Customer may supply the Equipment and Services to End Users, but not to any other party. Customer is responsible for ensuring the compliance of End Users with the terms of this Agreement, all applicable laws and Codes of Practice.
- 3.2 Customer shall only use Equipment authorised for use on the Network.

- 19.3 Neither Party shall lose any right under this Agreement if it fails to use that right, or delays in using it. For a waiver of a right to be valid, it must be written and will not give rise to an ongoing waiver of that right unless it is expressly stated to do so.
- 19.4 Termination of this Agreement or any part thereof, shall be without prejudice to any other rights or remedies a Party may be entitled to at law or under the Agreement and shall not affect any accrued rights or liabilities of either Party nor the coming into force or the continuance in force of any provision of the Agreement which is expressly or by implication intended to come into or continue in force on or after such termination.

- 19.6 Only provisions set out in this Agreement shall apply to Vodafone's supply of Services to Customer. All other provisions are expressly excluded to the maximum extent permitted by law. The Parties acknowledge that, in entering into this Agreement, neither Party has relied upon any statement or warranty made, or agreed to, by any person, except those expressly set out within this Agreement. However, this shall not be taken to exclude either Party's liability for fraud.
- 19.7 If a misrepresentation or untrue statement has been made, the only remedy available to the Parties shall be a claim for damages for breach of this Agreement, unless such misrepresentation or untrue statement was made fraudulently, or a provision of the Agreement was induced by fraud, in which case all remedies under Qatari Law shall be available.
- 19.8 All headings in this Agreement are there for convenience, and do not have any legal effect. Use of the singular includes the plural and vice versa.
- 19.9 Any changes made to Customer's systems or processes that may affect the Services (including any change to computer server software) are at Customer's sole risk. Vodafone shall not be liable to continue to support the Services to the extent that they are affected by such change.
- 19.10 Every provision in this Agreement is independent from the others to the extent that, if a provision, or any part of it, is ruled to be illegal or unenforceable by the Qatari Courts, that provision or the relevant part of it shall be treated as having been deleted from this Agreement, without affecting the remainder of that provision or the other provisions of this Agreement, which shall still have full effect.
- 19.11 Where Vodafone supplies Equipment and Services to Customer that is not expressly covered by the Agreement, such supply shall be deemed to be governed by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 19.12 If there is a dispute under this Agreement, and Customer's account manager has been unable to resolve the issue to Customer's satisfaction, Customer may escalate the issue to a more senior representative within Vodafone. The Parties shall use the escalation process to its full before taking legal action against the other Party.
